Countdown is on until these asshats continue their sick fetish of gossiping about me. It's rather pathetic and disgusting. This is what is wrong with the world. Too many old creepy white guys that think they are the masters of the universe.

I think I'm the first one censored that she cannot come up with a 'rule' that I violated. I look forward to reading her reasoning in a day or two when she announces to the group her heroic stand against _____ and how it will not be tolerated here.

Richard Lee Oh she can come up with a "rule" the same as the rest of us. When I was in she specifically said there was no censorship and there was no banning of people, ie there were no "rules."

And her "rules" she has now are so loose she can interpret them however she wants. Her only rule is to not post anything she doesn't like.

Charles Groves I did not even post something she did not like in her echo chamber. Did you see the reference to making fun of mental health?... I bet that's what I did in the summary in a day or two of the rule that was broken. She is certifiably insane I feel... and likely reading this... so if it's mental health, I claim credit for coming up with the idea Rachell!

I have legit stalkers. These fucking creeps like to harass me CONSTANTLY and claim it's their first amendment right. Fuck you Richard Lee Rynearson and Charles Groves

Farewell post...

Due to ongoing harassment directed towards me, I will be deleting my account after tomorrow. Facebook refuses to do anything about the continual cyberbullying so I'm leaving the forum. I encourage as many people to do the same. This place is a unhealthy for all members. Society is falling apart and this forum only embraces, encourages and perpetuates the hate and division. The only reason I haven't left already was because prior to my mom's suicide, Facebook was the easiest way for us to stay in touch and for me to share updates with my mom about my newborn daughter. After her death, it was the only way to see her last messages to me. I attempted to do something good by providing a place for people to come together, as a way to honor my mom and to help people suffering like her. I refuse to be a target of some pathetic incels. They have taken pictures of me that included my children and turned them into memes. They have managed to get screenshots off my private profile and my private group and post them in FB groups, on other websites and crowd sharing forums that have little to no censorship. While I fully support the first amendment, there is no excuse for the level of depravity that I've witnessed on Facebook. I wish all my family and friends a fond farewell. If you need to contact me, you can private message me before I delete my account and I will share my email address.

This lady is married to a serial cyberstalker (Richard/Rick Lee Ryneerson) and she uses her law degree to enable her husband's obsession. Don't interact with them online, or they will come after you, your friends and family. They make websites dedicated to stalking and harassing their victims. They are sick and should be locked up.

Lana Gaudio "Don't call threats of physical violence threats of physical violence, or else he will escalate things" is the same logic as "Maybe if I'm nicer to him he won't beat me this time." It's gaslighting and abuser's logic.

The correct response to physical threats is document and take it to the police. That way, if (or let's be honest, when) he "escalates things", the response can be immediate and proportional.

Lana Gaudio Threatening to "set the real American inside her free" is a threat of physical violence. I'm surprised I have to explain this. He isn't offering to take her out for ice cream. The law does not require someone to make the threat explicitly. Otherwise, you couldn't prosecute, say, a gang member for threatening to "take out" a rival gang member.

Nicole Noel ★ Not allowing name calling, hate-speech, threats or intimidation isn't "censorship" its reinforcing the literal rules of this page. Rules which exist to be as inclusive of diverse discourse as possible (without considering the possibility of people being sub-human or not deserving basic human rights, anyways).

Remember how he got all pissed off because he couldn't justify calling me a "racist" by any definition of the word and yet we are all just supposed to bow down to his authority, despite what decades of dictionaries and academics pertaining to race studies say?

All without any justification, just "he said so"? 😞

I honestly think this guy has the makings of a mass shooter so yeah, it would probably be best to block him.

I honestly think this guy has the makings of a mass shooter so yeah, it would probably be best to block him.

He doesn't get to threaten and intimidate people because they don't agree with him. That's not how free speech and inclusiveness works 😞

He's had plenty of space to state his perceptions, but he is in NO way at all entitled to having people agree with him.

He struggles with that.

Especially his more toxic, inaccurate and just all around bizarre ideas which don't hold up to any form of reality (except through a white supremacist lens).

I also like the projections of mental illness 😞

You don't let him bully others and harass them so you're obviously nowhere near as enlightened or functionally healthy as he is 😞😞😞😞😞

Lana Gaudio Do not do this. It is a common abuse tactic to escalate and then gaslight and play the victim. Instead:

-(1) document all contact points between you and he, including any times he spoke about you in a public internet forum. "Public" in this case includes "closed" and "secret" group settings, or any other forum where membership is available to members of the public without fees, dues, or enrollments.

-(2) Contact the police or FBI or both. Harassment and intimidation are both criminal offenses in the State of Washington. Make sure there is a case number associated with your complaint. Any further criminal acts that you witness should be both documented and then reported to the authorities referencing this case file.

-(3) Do your best to not give him ammunition that could be used against you. Ammunition includes written or verbal comments made about him. Ammunition does not include your personal attitude. "Character witnesses" aren't a thing in court unless the prosecution stupidly opens the door for the defense to use them. So don't. Stick to the facts. What happened. When. Who did/said it. What documentation exists to support it.

Rachael Kentner 🛡️ We have some issues with cyberstalkers so it is necessary to make our group closed to protect our members. The first amendment is not an excuse to be a bully and mock people.

I have received multiple complaints about a member of the group and unfortunately, I have decided to remove him in order to protect the integrity of this group. While we support first amendment rights, we also respect everyone's right to feel safe. My goal is 100% transparency. Anyone whose intent and purpose is to undermine the group will be asked to discontinue their behavior. If they continue, we will remove them. Thank you for bearing with me as I figure out what the hell I'm doing. I had absolutely no experience running a group prior to this so this is a work in progress. Please feel free to offer suggestions on how we can make this group better, what you'd like to see and not like to see. ❤️

🗨️ Charles Groves It actually seemed to me that the one that was removed was initially personally attacked by another member. This seems to be another case of someone silencing content which they disagree. I thought the point was to have open discussion.

Rachael Kentner 🌟 Charles Groves no, clearly you haven't had an interaction with Richard Lee Ryearson or Betty BIU as he calls himself on YouTube and Twitter. He is abusing the first amendment to push his agenda because he has an obsession with Clarence Moriwaki. Google him and you'll see everything you need to know about him.

🗨️ Charles Groves Rachael Kentner, I know him well, and I do know of his obsession. It actually got a state law eliminated! Less laws = more liberty. Look at the interaction that had him removed though. He was the one personally attacked initially, and I was of the impression that this group was about discussion, of which I thought he was doing with regard to the Stonechild execution, police abuse of power conversation. It seemed he disagreed with someone on the existence of a race issue involved as I did but otherwise he was in line with the majority thought on the issue.

Rachael Kentner 🌟 Charles Groves no, it became Spammy as Richard shared a link to his website numerous times. Multiple people were complaining and he became very rude and hostile. I gave him the option to remain in the group, but asked him to stop linking his website since it was shared in every thread. He came back with his free speech rhetoric, which at this point I feel he's using to justify his hate fueled rage. I'm not interested in entertaining him.

 Charles Groves I must have missed the part where he was warned. On the particulars of his case, obsessions aside, he did win in court, and exposed some BI hypocrisy. That should be worth something.

Some of you may have noticed that I haven't been active here for several weeks. In early July, a huge surge of people joined the group. We grew from 200 to 1100. Among the new members were a couple of men who are known in the community to stir up chaos, they have been banned from various groups and decided to try their luck here. I instantly knew that they had ulterior motives and after doing research on these individuals, could see a pattern of online abuse and harassment. I made the decision to remove them from the group to prevent them from causing any further harm. In doing so, I put a target on myself.

Unfortunately, these men have continuously cyberstalked me, taken photos that included my children, cropped them out and made memes mocking me. They have posted screenshots of my posts with comments from members of this group and shared them on various Facebook pages and other websites. I have reported their incessant behavior to no avail. While I have blocked these men from my profile, it is nearly impossible to prevent them from creating fake profiles and sneaking in here under false identities.

I never expected the group to take up so much of my time and invade my life the way it has. I have enjoyed making connections with so many of you, so it is with a heavy heart that I have to say goodbye. I have decided to leave Facebook entirely as this forum has become toxic and a cesspool for trolls and bullies. I'm disappointed. Most of family is spread out, so Facebook has been our primary source of communication for the last decade. During my mom's last months on Earth, it was how we stayed in touch. Her last words to me were on a post of my children. It breaks my heart that I have been forced to make this decision, but I have to do what's best for my family and my safety. I sincerely hope that you all have a wonderful future full of joy and peace. Many blessings to you lovely people of North Kitsap.

A young island girl on her way to college has some choice words for many including for island "moms" so bored they're into gossiping and shaming girls on the island. Ali Perry (the same woman who liked a call for the death of a neighbor she didn't agree with on Facebook) responded to the heartfelt criticism by pointing out typos in the complaint and adding her own "shout out" to English teachers.

Hello Bainbridge Islanders! As I approach leaving for college I've been reflecting on my 18 years living here and would like to shout out some people. First of all shout out to all the disgusting old men who have constantly harassed, and creeped out the young girls who live here be it at there jobs where we have no choice but to be nice to you or in any other public spaces! Shout out to the moms and many community members who are so bored with their lives that they gossip about kids and slut shame/over sexualize young girls! Shout out to all the married couples who cheat on each other some of which whom start sugar daddy relationships with girls who, surprise, they know are under age (even the same age as their daughters)! Shout out to all the kids who have put fear into the lives of their peers and gotten away with it! And shout out to all the privileged sheltered kids who think its okay to use derogatory words! Yes things could be worse but it seems like everybody loves to act like we live in the most perfect little community when in reality this place breeds sexual harassment, mental illness and racism. Adults that live here need

Kirk Knighton "Their" If you're going off to college make teach you the difference between there, their and they's welcome.

Rachael Kentner ★ Be aware of this man. He goes by many names: Richard Lee, Rick Ryneerson, Dick, Betty BIU, Ryno, Pick Your Battles, Not Clarence Moriwaki of Bainbridge Island, Stop Bainbridge Island Censorship, Kitsap Local Affairs, Kitsap County Uncensored and probably many, more. He's been extremely busy harassing people online for years. Nobody can stop him. He had the law changed when he appealed the cyberstalking laws in Washington after he was charged for harassing Clarence Moriwaki. Now he abuses the law, and his wife is a lawyer that enables his sick fetish. He's been forced off his property on Bainbridge Island, and has been reported to be living in a van in Poulsbo. He's a narcissist. I would consider him a menace to society. He has a small number of associates including Lorenzo Ortega of Kingston, who is a known member of the local Patriot Prayer white nationalist terrorist group. Don't take my word for it, you can Google it and see it for yourself. The consensus seems to be that Rick is mentally unstable, but he manages to not break any laws, so he's free to continue his abuse. It's not right.

Post

Richard Lee is with Hyland Hunt.

Sadly, we have moved out of our Bainbridge Island condo one year to the day after we arrived with dreams of post military living. The public calls for my death (liked by several including my self identified "civil rights" activist adversary) and the caricature of me and my wife to literally hundreds of our neighbors, based on his lies, have made it unsafe for us in our home at the moment. We hope to return to our retirement home when the hysteria has died down. In the meantime we will spend our time on our Poulsbo property with frequent trips in our new RV.

Nicole Noel 🌟 Awe hun.

It sucks that we have to share the same earth with such wastes of human existence.

Can you imagine being so useless...so worthless...so broken and so pathetic that the only thing that keeps you going is stalking and harassing others?

You have your family, you have friends, you have a kind heart and you have a good life. That's why they hate you.

These miserable little fellas have child pornography and addictive substances to keep them going.

That's the extent of their existence.

They'll die, and nobody will care.

Not even their "friends".

They have absolutely no social value or worth.

And that, is why they stalk and harass.

Go ahead and delete your profile, do what you must to keep your mind clear of their little games; every minute we spend sucked into their little vortex of sad depravity is a minute that could have been spent with worthwhile people doing actually meaningful things.

Hey, fall is just around the corner. Go pick apples with your family and make some applesauce or cider; fill your home with the scents of the season. Put a pumpkin on your porch and start looking at Halloween costumes.

Come get a latte with me 😊

And let's let these weirdos stew in their sad, mold-infested dwellings, eating processed crap out of a box, smelling of yesterday's body odor and grease, as they escape into the internet to prey upon decent humans because stalking and threatening is the happiest part of their day.

Rachael Kentner Just to be clear, the reason for leaving is not because of what people are saying about me. I could care less about criticism or judgement, but this entire forum is taking away from really LIVING . What a horrible waste of the precious time we have on this Earth. I'm going to spend more time with my lovely children, my beautiful friends and family, my soulmate and getting to know myself again, drinking a latte with Noël 😊, volunteering and making a positive difference in people's lives, unlike some people who devote their sad, miserable lives to bullying people they've never met. So, thank you Rick Betty Ryno Dick, or whatever for being such a great inspiration on how not to live. You've opened my eyes to how horrible people can be for no reason other than they are pathetic losers with nothing better to do. I ALMOST feel sorry for you, but you're so delusional that you think you're doing a service to the world. YOU'RE NOT. Being a jerk just because you got kicked out for trolling (which was always against the rules here!!!) doesn't give you the right to throw a childish temper tantrum. This group still doesn't censor, and never has been censored by any of the current admins. A few bad seeds were removed for becoming hostile and incessantly rude. And I've always been open and up front about all of it. But they want to call me a liar for not being inclusive to them. We don't have to give them a platform for their hate and they should learn to accept that. I truly hope they find some peace in their lives.

Farewell post...

Due to ongoing harassment directed towards me, I will be deleting my account after tomorrow. Facebook refuses to do anything about the continual cyberbullying so I'm leaving the forum. I encourage as many people to do the same. This place is a unhealthy for all members. Society is falling apart and this forum only embraces, encourages and perpetuates the hate and division. The only reason I haven't left already was because prior to my mom's suicide, Facebook was the easiest way for us to stay in touch and for me to share updates with my mom about my newborn daughter. After her death, it was the only way to see her last messages to me. I attempted to do something good by providing a place for people to come together, as a way to honor my mom and to help people suffering like her. I refuse to be a target of some pathetic incels. They have taken pictures of me that included my children and turned them into memes. They have managed to get screenshots off my private profile and my private group and post them in FB groups, on other websites and crowd sharing forums that have little to no censorship. While I fully support the first amendment, there is no excuse for the level of depravity that I've witnessed on Facebook. I wish all my family and friends a fond farewell. If you need to contact me, you can private message me before I delete my account and I will share my email address.

And when he was caught, his wife helped him appeal and they fought the system and changed the law. It's disgusting and a total abuse of the law. RR was even accused of breaking in to Clarence Moriwaki's place and rearranging things, moving the silverware etc, but left no evidence. They couldn't charge him even though on his Twitter account Betty of BUI he made a mention of the cutlery bandit, mocking Clarence.

I'm going to contact a few people, give Mr. Ryneerson and Mr. Groves cease and desist letters that if they continue to publicly humiliate and harass me, legal action will be taken. I happen to have a few lawyers in my family. Not to mention I have already been on trial before as a victim/witness to a crime and my testimony helped put a man away for attempted vehicular manslaughter. Ryneerson might have put the nail in his own coffin by messing with me. I hope he likes the look of a cell. He'll hopefully be spending time there soon.

Rachael Kentner Cree Roberts well, he lives in a van somewhere in Poulsbo, he was forced to give up his guns at one point, he left the military after refusing to take orders, he has a YouTube channel dedicated to hate propaganda, he spends his entire day online attacking anyone who challenges him, he has multiple accounts on several forums that are dead give aways because he always shares a link to his website dedicated to his hate for Clarence Moriwaki, he has been banned and blocked by dozens of people and groups. There is SO much evidence that this guy is not ok, but he's just out there doing whatever and nobody stops him. It's bonkers.

The comments from the news article I shared above had comments from within the last 2 weeks saying he's living in a van 🤔

Clarence Moriwaki As the (seemingly never-ending) target of this sociopath, I am so, so sorry Rachael that Richard Lee Ryneerson III/Richard Lee/Rick Ryneerson/Winged Ryno/Not Clarence Moriwaki of Bainbridge Island... - he's got so many damn ID's, fake names. blogs and pages that I can't keep up - has now decided to bully, harass and target you.

What gave - and still provides - the strength for me to deal with him for more than two years is the grateful support from numerous friends and strangers (some who have become friends) who pushed back hard - and are still doing so - of which I see you are blessed to have many friends who passionately have your back.

I was sad, angry, disgusted and more when you reached out to me over a month and a half ago when Dick (both a nickname and apt description for Richard) was ramping up his trolling, bullying and harassment towards your page and you.

Ugh. Dick is trolling you?

So, so sorry. He is a lonely, obsessive, narcissistic sociopath who has a decade or more of being a total unwelcome asshole.

Block him immediately, and have any and all of your friends to do the same. You're not a censor, fascist, intolerant or hypocritical admin., you just don't tolerate juvenile trolls.

Be prepared if you do this. He will go ballistic since this is his whole sadistic game - Get blocked, play injured sanctimonious victim and berate you until the cow don't come home.

I despise trolls and could not care less about them, but I had to address him because he happens to have been living in his condo 300 feet away from mine.

Look up "John Q. Public Independence Day" and you find a blog of a retired USAF Col. Tony Carr, of whom Dick Ryneerson trolled and harassed for years. Scroll down to the comments, and someone described Ryneerson perfectly. I mean perfectly.

Before you block, contact your friends and others to do it at the same time you do. That will drive him nuts. After I blocked him he went on a rampage posting on friends' timelines, sending PMs, buying ads attacking me and more.

I will be happy to chat/talk more, but signing off to enjoy the remainder of this beautiful weekend.

All my empathy and support to you Rachel.

Cree Roberts Clarence Moriwaki I am so sorry for what you have gone through with this lunatic. I have heard of crazy stalker/trolls but this is quite possibly the craziest one I have ever encountered on social media. How he managed a career in the military is beyond me and how his fellow airmen didn't solve the problem amongst themselves is also beyond me. It sounds like he is devolving by he day so hopefully law enforcement can intervene before he physically hurts someone.

Cindy Douglas 🖐️ I decided to leave that group Kitsap Local Affairs just now. I've been listed on their website for being a troll when I was just asking for recommendations. Now I'm being harassed by that Rick guy. I just googled him and it's creepy. Maybe what he's doing isn't against the law, but it should be. He has over 100 pages of this groups screenshots posted on his blog. He wants revenge for the administration of this group banning him. This isn't the first time he's done this either. He has a very long, extensively documented history of this behavior, going back to when he was in the service. I guess he was trying to refuse orders and got reprimanded. He was forced to resign in order to not be dishonorably discharged. He's been an online cyber bully ever since.

Nicole Noel What's kinda sad is they really don't know any actual thugs. I've been screencapping these threads and sending them to people who actually are, because my softness is kinda notorious among my "harder" friends.

If they did know anything about gang culture, and if they actually suspected me of being part of one, I'd be obligated to represent. And that wouldn't be good for them.

They have no idea how gang culture works. Or they'd be more careful.

Someday they're going to fixate on the wrong person.

Hopefully we can convince them to find new hobbies before then.

(P.S. not all brown people are thugs. And not all thugs are brown. Stop being racist).

Good times at Kitsap Local Affairs. Some of you may know that two members from this group were removed for violating group rules (spamming the page with links to a questionable site, rude behavior to other members, bullying & cyberstalking the admins etc). We still are being monitored by them "in real time" as they put it. They insist that it is their right to voice their harsh criticisms of the "Fascist antifa thugs" in our "echochamber" by bullying and harassing anyone who challenges them. These creeps are so obsessed with what happens in this group, they have nothing better to talk about. This should not be necessary, but they have been relentless for over 2 months now. Rachael Kentner had to step out of hiding to make a statement asking them to stop harassing her, making false allegations about her and the members of this group. They won't stop. They demand attention. They thrive on it. They love chaos. This post will be uploaded to their site and they will laugh about it because they are losers. They don't care who they hurt. This group was created to promote kindness and generosity. They want to silence us through intimidation. While they claim they are free speech champions, they have forgotten that words have power, the power to cause pain, the power to intimidate, the power to silence. After going head to head with these bullies for the last week, we have only gained more insight on these very sick men. They refuse to back down from a pointless battle. Yes, they are really that petty. I would recommend every one of you avoid those men, especially if you're an opinionated woman. Peace

To suffice the spank bank Charles Groves. I can't see what you reply because I blocked you 2 months ago, but I've heard you've been professing your love for me. That's bizarre. I have screenshots IF you need them. I get that smart women intimidate you. But you sure have a strange way of showing affection. I'm married Charles. You know that. Please stop. You need a new hobby.

Nicole Noel 🛡️ The only, and I mean only reason there was any back and forth is because those two psychopaths stalked and harassed me and others, even going as far as posting pictures of people's children on their little creepo sites.

I will not simply shrug my shoulders and allow others to obsessively spread lies about me to soothe their ego just because I'm smarter than they are and they can't handle it.

I don't scare easy. But I won't tolerate defamation, I won't tolerate losers using my name to raise money for their pathetic lives (never mind taking advantage of people's trust in me for their financial gain).

They advocate for white supremacist ideals and have harassed various private citizens for a decade. Enough is enough.

I will shut down any and all meaningful discourse until mediocre, useless men with enlarged egos learn their lesson and leave me, my family and friends TF alone.

Like · Reply · 7h · Edited

David Stephenson 🖐️ Nicole Noel then I would suggest just blocking them and moving on, if you ignore them they will lose interest pretty rapidly and go on to something else, or to have a conversation with them without name calling on either side. I am not saying you started it, just don't return suit if they start. If you stay on the higher ground you look like the reasonable one and they look like the irrational ones that have to resort to name calling. Drop the white supremacy, they are losers with big egos part and just stick to the topic. It's not about being scared off, or giving the appearance of, I don't think there would be anything to be scared of from someone on Facebook.

Let me get this straight, you came here and criticized me for standing up for myself against people who have been obsessively stalking and covertly threatening me, who have a long history of doing this same thing to others (even being taken to court over it and having their guns taken away because the judge ruled they're so unstable) after I'd already tried blocking and repeated requests that they leave me alone?

Like you seriously think you have anything meaningful to contribute?

Why not say "hey, creepy guys, leave people alone and don't stalk them!" Instead you go after their victims?

You suck

I don't like you. I don't care about you. You're uninteresting, unoriginal and seriously, you have nothing "good" to say.

Don't want me to put you in your place? Then leave me alone

Simple as that.

Just posted in Kitsap Local Affairs:

David Archer was a test and most of you all failed. Like, basically this whole group. He doesn't exist and neither do I. Many of you have witnessed for months the onslaught from the admin, Richard Rick Lee Ryneerson, or maybe you've blocked him. He runs this group so that makes no sense to block admins of groups you join. If you have chosen to remain for the entertainment, that's sick. If you've chosen to stay here and ignore the personal attacks because they didn't involve you, that's sad. I hope you will open up your minds and see a world outside of Facebook. Real people with real feelings that DO matter. If you see unnecessary harassment of strangers, say something. Don't just sit back and laugh or turn your head and ignore. Hate hurts and hate kills. Learn to love a little more. Judge a little less. Be kind.

Lana Gaudio This whollllllle thread where both Groves and Rynearson repeat white supremacist lies over and over... Yikes.

On the plus side, this is proof that simply repeating the truth over and over is effective. Never treat the truth as a rebuttal to a lie. It weakens the impact of the truth, and makes it seem as if the lie has some reasonable debate purpose. Just keep repeating the truth. It works.

It's even crazier than that.

The whole me "begging for money" thing was derived from me sharing one of their crowdsource fundraisers months ago before I knew they were batshit.

That money never made it to Stonechilids family either. Even though they raised it "for him".

That's how insane these people are. They were slandering me for sharing their fundraiser and twisting it to make me sound desperate and pitiful

Because that's the narrative they need to believe to feel good.

I realized something in that exchange: they target those they perceive to have power because they feel powerless.

And they desire to feel powerful.

Taking down a page that is otherwise good because people say things they don't like (such as rape is bad, racism is bad, homosexuality is ok, etc..) makes them feel powerful.

They have no power.

They use scare tactics.

One of them doesn't even leave a very small geographic location because of all the bridges they burn.

The other has to really think about how they engage with the public because their livelihood depends on their business...which has a large clientele composed of non-white, non-male people. So...if he wants to stay in business, he had better clean up his act.

Because we could easily make his predatory behavior known.

They are all games. Don't let them get inside your head.

Erin Self Careful with this weirdo, I believe he has a history of targeting people he disagrees with. Not sure if he is the same man, but the creator of the website "notclarencemoriwaki" stalked and impersonated Mr. Moriwaki (who is a and renowned speaker on Japanese internment), because he disagrees with his view on internment. There was a court battle, he was let off, but he is ex military, owns weapons, and loves trolling and targeting people.

Lana Gaudio Holy shit. THAT'S the big bad uber-hyper-focused on quality business he was talking about that couldn't POSSIBLY pay inexperienced staff a minimum wage because the big bad gov'mint came along and forced them to stop paying workers slave wages? The one that's soooooo massively "successful" that they can "snipe" workers from other companies after they've already been trained, rather than taking the time to train them themselves and pay them while training them? THAT'S the big fucking Ayn Rand wet dream come true?? Fucking VALUE GLASS?? A store with literally no photographic evidence at all of any customers ever having been inside it? A company that, on its own website bills itself as "DISCOUNT glass"?? A company which, and I swear to god this is true... Has exactly one online review on Manta in "over 20 years of business"... And it's from the fucking owner, with an upside down profile photo... AND he didn't even give himself FIVE STARS?? Holy fucking shit. This guy...

THAT'S the financial mastermind of the ages??? 🙄😂😂😂😂😂

Feti Wap ★ Honestly, that group is their personal online slam book and they are so interested in the women of this group because they were not allowed to continue their abusive behavior here. I've been trying to find a way to get them a new hobby, even trying to give them actual local news to talk about. They are obsessed and it has become their mission to bring down this group any way they can. I will continue to challenge them because they don't deserve a free pass when they are targeting children and traumatizing compete strangers. They love the attention, they are sick. Anyone who feels threatened by them should stay away from them because they are relentless. My goal is to be their target so they leave other people alone. They give me so much of their time, they barely have time to do much else. They are not very smart at all. I've told them exactly what I'm up to.

Please share with any liberals/ progressives you know as well, because they are definitely being targeted by this couple.

This would also be a great time to have everyone check their security settings online and to remind any liberal or progressive friends, family, neighbors, coworkers to do the same.

We have spent a lot of time researching these people, so if you have any additional questions feel free to comment or message and we'll be sure to follow up. Let's get the word out, and help each other be safe out there!

I am just here to shut this page down and take away Rick Richard Lee Ryneearson's audience. The spamming and trolling will continue until he's forced off this page, or it is permanently removed. He will never out last us! We will stop that psychotic bully. He has plenty of other spaces to share his hate propaganda. This doesn't need to be one off them. Fuck you and your "free speech", you're a coward and a bully. Period. Nobody should have to listen to you Rick and telling everyone to block you is so stupid when they should just report all your profiles until you're kicked off Facebook. I've been successful at getting several of this groups posts removed for hate speech. And yes, we have people on the inside at Facebook.

Can somebody please kindly inform Mr. Groves that through my ordeal with my surgery, I have not asked anybody for a single cent (my partner and I do fairly well and my tribe is generous with health related costs that aren't covered by insurance) so if somebody is collecting on my behalf, they are exploiting the public 🙄 another group, and thus not violating any of your many,many, rules. I am not in any way part of the medical or mental health community and had no standing to diagnose any condition whatsoever. And that is what I did. That is all that I did.

Charles Groves David Archer , This is an inclusive group, that does not censor, and while you have exploited the fact that it does not censor... can you at least see that it is inclusive? You are still here, and actually have been producing some meaningful insight today. Mother did not need to be watching for that to happen, I will only continue to invite you to participate as your self. Let's build that permanent monument to police brutality, let's work out how best to really help the homeless, let's get Nicole Noel something that pays real money so she can be independent and stop asking for handouts! She's intelligent also, I could take that back a notch also, to at least an agreed to disagree place.

When people across the political spectrum work together we can accomplish anything... but when we have our 'side' and you have your 'side' nothing gets done but insults and literal shit pics. I'm actually tired of it.

I'm compiling a collection of screenshots from the group of serial cyber stalkers many of us in the North Kitsap community have been targeted by. I have a friend who works at FB who is going to look into what can be done on their end to limit their access to victims. If this isn't enough to get them to stop, I'm already filing an anti-harassment order in tribal court where they have zero advantage or foothold or connections so they can't get away with their shenanigans (as soon as I'm physically able to get up and go down to the police station) and encourage all indigenous people who have been targeted by them to do the same. From there, I am willing to help organize a larger group suit against them in state/county court with the aid of my relatives (it's handy having half a dozen lawyers in the family) to end their stalking, harassment and defamation of character.

Please message me with your screenshot and experiences.

This will end. If they refuse to stop, we will get the law to make them stop.

Now they're so low they're even targeting children.

Bad mistake on their part.

To make this easier, make sure you ask them to stop their harassment/stalking/defamation and screenshot when they don't/won't.

There's already enough compiled evidence for 3 of us to file an anti-harassment order against them. I'd like to make sure everybody who has been targeted by them is protected and advocated for.

Who the hell knows.

One of them didn't like that I knew more about the history of the KKK vs. The Black Panthers (he tried to equate the two) and had credible sources of information to back each of my claims/debunk all his ridiculous inanity (which was funny...he demanded I have a PHD before he'd consider me an expert on any subject...but he doesn't even have an associates and expected to be given complete deference...) so he harped on a single comment I made and claimed it was racist.

The comment, mind you, was "I call out shitty natives on a daily basis. Specifically misogynists and the like." And twisted it to pretending he interpreted it as me saying "all" natives are shitty and all native men are misogynists 🙄🙄🙄🙄🙄 I'm Native. As in I live on the Rez and was raised fully immersed in my culture. And he was claiming I "only" called out white people for bad behavior. He's so crazy.

Which was an obvious reach and attempt to derail the conversation because he was so obviously out of his league.

He's used that single comment in that thread to justify months of stalking, harassment and even going as far as claiming that I contributed to the murder of my neighbor/father of my cousins last july.

On top of that, he's claiming I'm "begging" people for money. It's insane, he just goes out of his way to find anything to make me look bad.

That's what finally made me snap.

None of them are even close. He claims I'm being trained by Clarence and his "thug crew". I have never heard of him until now, but I saw how Rick has been tormenting people for years, and he's gotten too cocky with his stalking. Just because he got away with it doesn't mean it is right, moral or noble. He's a coward. He's a loser. He's a horrible human. And he claims he's an American hero standing up for freedom. There are consequences for actions.

It costs $60 to legally force you to leave me and my family alone.

That's all 😊

I've done this before, and I'll do it again. It's just annoying to have to fill out the paperwork and go down to the station.

You don't get to just be a bully without consequences.

I came here to warn others that you are not safe, and that they should avoid your business.

I've been screenshooting this whole thread.

The nice thing about an anti harassment order (I've had to have one against my ex husband so I'm familiar with the process) is you won't be able to contact me, talk about me or post about me, or I about you. Except to say I have an order against you and why.

So, once it's granted, you and I will never have another exchange again.

It really is too bad that you had to become fixated on me and obsessed with me; I forgot you existed until today.

It won't be so bad. Once the order is in place you'll be able to finally put me out of your mind. 😊

And you can go on living your life and I my own.

I do suggest therapy though...it's absolutely absurd that people have to legally force you to stop harassing them.

I'm going to file the order Charles

It's not a difficult thing to do. I've suggested to others they do the same if you don't leave them alone.

I'm just giving you fair warning so you aren't blind sided.

Also; if you have been stealing money from people and claiming it's for me, now would be a good time to come clean and return it. Maybe they won't press charges.

Richard Lee Charles Groves is one of the most honorable men I know in Kitsap County. Sorry that you're having to deal with these Antifa attempts to punish you at work because they don't like your reasonable views, and because they hate that you won't silence yourself at their demand. Their network is adept at targeting businesses, threatening and losing legal action, and intimidating us residents of Kitsap County.

Charles Groves let me know if I can assist you in any way. I have some great resources for this kind of thing.

It's his stalking and harassing that will end.

And you don't have any resources for tribal

And antifa is "anti fascism".

Are you and Charles fascists? No? Then why do you think people being targeted by antifa?

Nicole Noel Pssst...somebody let Charles know that if there's a go fund me with my name on it, somebody is conning the public. The only time I've had one was when my car got broken into and everything stolen (except my phone) while traveling with my classmates 🙋♀️ 3 years ago 🙋

If people are using my recent surgery to collect funds, report them.

My children and I are well cared for (thank you for the concern), however, my husband is getting rather impatient with this constant harassment and may wish to have our cousins/lawyers pay Charles a visit.

And yes, we do have a team of lawyers we work with regularly. Pays to have a family full of them 😊 We also have a governor and a judge in the family, as well as a detective and private investigator.

And now y'all know why you don't scare me 😊

So this is my last warning that he may wish to reevaluate his choice in fixation/obsession.

And again, if anybody is collecting funds on my behalf, they need to be reported.

Nicole Noel Hey, if you're going to call out our "thug" affiliation, at least get your facts straight.

We aren't "antifa".

We are the "Antichrist".

As in, the (un)holy trinity.

Obviously 🙄

And Clarence isn't a "thug". He's a mobster.

Haven't you ever seen the God father? It's practically Clarence's life story.

And remember, our proper title is Nicole/David/Hillary/Jesus.

If you don't address us properly the CIA won't know who you're talking about. Clarity is key.

We, as in any of us, will shoot any intruder.

That's the only scenario where I condone violence, since you asked.

Hopefully it doesn't come to that.

I don't think it will 🤔

I'm sure you'll make the choice to do other things with your time before it gets to the point where you want to pay me unwelcome visits, like you have done to others.

It's amusing, really.

What you should "think" is, "is it really worth continuing down this path? What is the benefit of making up crazy shit about random people I don't actually know and fixating on them/stalking and harassing them? What are ALL the potential outcomes? What might be a better, more fulfilling use of my time?"

I'm amazed Clarence has put up with you for so long. Or anybody really.

Stop Bainbridge Island Censorship "I" broke into Clarence's house? I get that you think you know who I am, but you do realize Clarence's false police reports about his false break-ins (where he had no cameras installed despite all his claims of feeling so threatened, the same way you guys claim threats from nothing before you make actual threats) were all debunked by the cops, right? DNA evidence, fail. Fingerprints determined to be all Moriwaki's.

How long do you think you're going to go making allegations until you find yourself financially ruined in court?

Here's a link that has all the police reports saying the only person in Moriwaki's home was, you guessed it, Moriwaki. Nice try though!

Well, you did say we are thugs. That's what thugs supposedly do, right?

(If anybody wanted to resort to violence, it would have happened by now. You've poked and prodded enough people that I'm amazed it hasn't happened honestly...you must enjoy playing Russian roulette).

I myself avoid violence at all costs. There's always civil ways of handling stalkers. You're not the first I've had. You probably won't be the last.

But I do hear you and your friends have a tendency to break into houses/private properties.

I'm simply advising you do not do this anymore; unlike you, my guns will never be taken away. Because I'm sane.

And my veteran husband is very well trained in using them 😊

We've made sure our whole house knows how to properly shoot anything from handguns to rifles. Hunting is one of our favorite pastimes.

As are my police officer neighbors.

Come to think of it...being related to every person in my neighborhood, while also being indigenous, has numerous advantages. We are used to crazy white folk coming after us. We are the grandchildren of the people your grandparents couldnt kill 😊 Keep that in mind.

There's a reason some of us survived literally every single definition of genocide.

So there's that.

You will be stopped though. One way or another.

And you'll find more productive hobbies, hopefully therapy among them. Very intensive therapy. Because I firmly believe all people are redeemable. Whatever trauma made you the people you are shouldn't have happened. And it's robbed you of having a life worth living. That's why you stalk and harass.

This is your one guaranteed shot at existence. That you waste what precious time you have fixating on people who live good lives tells me you all have some serious issues that need some intensive help.

You too can have a good life if you put in the effort to heal and change. You can! Then you don't need to fixate on the rest of us decent humans.

I can't help what is said. It's not a lie that I heard these things with my own ears 😊

You're the one who automatically assumed I meant you specifically broke into a specific persons house.

That was your projection...

Makes me wonder if you're guilty of something.

If somebody said "I head Nicole's friends broke into people's houses" the very last thing I'd think of was them accusing me of breaking into a specific persons home.

Makes me wonder why your mind went there 😊

Did you do it? Come on, you can tell me 😊

Folks breaking into homes to steal things like cheese slicers are child's play to me 😊

Jerri Banks Scott Conner "create a page against some guy...." that's so ironic that you say that. Isn't that exactly what Rynearson has done by creating multiple Facebook groups and websites all to disparage, humiliate, embarrass and harass Clarence Moriwaki? I believe this page was created to discuss what Rynearson has been doing for years to multiple people. Oh. No. Somebody dropped a fuck bomb. Big deal. If everybody Rynearson trolled over the years created a website, multiple Facebook groups and twitter hands as much as Rynearson has then there's a decent chance the internet would slow to a crawl.

I am not requesting, I am demanding Richard Lee Ryneerson and Hyland Hunt that you immediately retract your false statements about my wife, Rachael Kentner. She is a private citizen, NOT a fascist dictator. She also no longer is the administrator of the Shares Group you are trying to defame. I also demand that you immediately remove the pictures of my children from your publitas website. You do not have the copyright to reproduce those images in any form and the fact you are trying to profit from your hate speech with your GoFundMe website is a clear violation of the Digital Millennium Copyright Act. Not to mention, they are minor children you have no relation to. You have one day to comply before legal action will be taken. And I've already spoken to my lawyer. He's a corporate lawyer specializing in copyright law.

All you gotta do is retract the statements where you accused Rachel of things she isn't, and delete the pictures of her kids (if you're the one who posted them).

You can leave whatever you want up about me (I personally believe it's good for people to learn from such exchanges and get good reminders; next time your friends tell you to be their guard dog, think first), just don't engage in future harassment and I'll call it good.

- A. Nicole Noel picks up the baton for the Moriwaki mob
- B. Says she may send thugs
- C. Will get her friends at Facebook to look into Ryneearson's speech
- D. Claims she will file a restraining order on tribal land where Ryneearson's legal resources won't matter
- E Leaves false claims on the business page of a man associated with Ryneearson
- F. Posts false claims in the North Kitsap Shares Facebook group she administers that was started by Moriwaki-associate, Rachael Kentner, with participation from Moriwaki supporters Shannon Evans, Jeri Banks, and Ali Perry and advances the defamation recommended to Moriwaki

John Kelly But then there's a secondary use where they will still say that white people are racist, so it's more like "not racist because you are sanctified by your conscientiousness"?

John Kelly I think that systems science shows that it's far messier than that, and that most of the time "racist" is a misleading label. The whole thing is a targeting system and it doesn't work well with systems science.

So I want to contrast this all though with the way I'm trying to get people to look at instead which is systems science, in which all open systems of any kind in the universe are all about boundaries that control flow of resources on the input and output. Doesn't matter what form they take in our universe.

So if we look at racism with systems science as a system of division by race, anything that maintains a trend toward those boundaries staying in place counts as a part of it. And that includes good stuff and bad stuff. For instance, when Black folks were really getting demeaned a while ago, they

So if we look at racism with systems science as a system of division by race, anything that maintains a trend toward those boundaries staying in place counts as a part of it. And that includes good stuff and bad stuff. For instance, when Black folks were really getting demeaned a while ago, they found ways to counter that by instead of being ashamed for being black, by being proud of being Black and celebrating what about that racial system they were forced into made them. They found a way to turn the negative into a positive. Still it also has a side effect of as long as people are being proud of being Black, they are reinforcing those divisions. Even the current "celebrate diversity" still reinforces those boundaries. Basically anything that helps the system keep doing it's thing is part of the racism system. But also saying "I don't see race" doesn't work if there's still damage happening. We need a way of telling where that damage from and the only way to tell remaining racism we haven't shut down is no longer doing damage is to keep an eye on race. So "celebrate diversity" is the lesser of the two evils based on how it allows us to hit back against racism without blowback.

Critical theory on the other hand is focused on who has the upper hand and is keeping the upper hand so it doesn't recognize anything that's a reaction to racism from the people in power. For them the system in power is the perpetrator, and any response no matter how racially divisive

For them the system in power is the perpetrator, and any response no matter how racially divisive it is still isn't a method of keeping the upper hand.

Does that help for making sense of what people on that side are saying? It's almost like it's the same English words, but a new dialect.

Rick Ryneerson  Under the Reality Systems Theory, If a person views, as Lana does, an entire group of people as worse or inferior to another group of people, based on skin color, then they are "racist."

Reality Systems Theory is the leading theory, practically a law, and beats the socks off those new fangled SJW theories taught by pseudo-academics who have managed to make institutions of higher learning a laughing stock in America.

There were "academics" in America who also peddled racism as scientific theory back in the day, trying to explain how certain Americans were inferior using theories about brain size and concentrating on physical characteristic differences between one group of people and another, much like Lana does.

Lana is the new version of that. She has learned some pseudo-academic garbage to justify her belief that certain groups of people are inferior to others because of their skin color.

Lana is, without question, a racist.

John Kelly But the key is that the way we fight it is compassion. If you look at the history of critical theory and systems theory, you see they both were just developing independent of each other. One didn't have as badass of tools since sociology is a super-soft science.

I mean we can operate in two opposing systems at once. We can both reinforce norms/boundaries of a racist system, and an anti-racist system. But almost all of us want the racist system to die. It's just that systems theory shows us even good things can still reinforce racism. What matters for systems theory is strengthening or weakening of boundaries. So now it's more about tactics. Except in this war, people are the resources to capture from the opposing system. Everyone wants to attack the resources we need to capture. But all that does is make the other side harder to capture, and the only way we win is capturing resources/people.

Rick Rynearson So much nonsense. Best explained by this gentleman. People like Lana and their SJW nutter colleagues are not interested in defeating racism, they're interested in keep it in existence.

John Kelly But that's because systems do that to people. There's ways around that. They control the average tolerance and intolerance.

Rick Rynearson 🗨️ The compassionate thing to do when faced with a Lana, is to inform her that she's wrong. Not blow smoke up her skirt to encourage her delusion that she's bright when the reality is she should be getting professional mental health. It's not compassionate to tell such people that they're okay or that they're just so smart, instead you tell them they have a problem.

John Kelly But I was doing it. But it's delicate because I'm a white man. She is hyper sensitive to a man telling her things. If you notice, she reacted with concern like 3 times. I have to keep disarming the concern each time to keep making it forward.

But also I see past the disinformation. She has more tolerance than the average SJW, even if it doesn't seem like it to you. But it's pretty hard because the whole system they have has no checks and balances.
